

GETTING TO HERIOT-WATT, VIA EDINBURGH

Edinburgh International Airport is served by scheduled national and international flights. There are regular direct flights from London, Amsterdam, Paris, Frankfurt, Brussels, Zurich and New York, to name a few.

The airport is located west of the city and just three miles from the campus. The journey from Airport to Heriot-Watt campus takes less than 10 minutes by taxi. Transfers from Edinburgh (EDI) airport can be arranged during the admission process.

If you like the idea of getting out and about exploring all that Scotland and the UK has to offer, you can be on the main arterial routes in minutes.

TRANSPORT LINKS FROM EDINBURGH

By rail: Edinburgh is located on a fast, express rail line to London and served by Inter-City 125 mph high-speed trains. The frequent rail service from Edinburgh to London takes only 4.5 hours from city centre to city centre. Edinburgh is also well networked with regular rail services to the rest of Scotland and the UK.

By coach: All national coach services to Edinburgh arrive at St Andrew Square bus station, situated at the east end of Princes Street in the city centre.

By road: Edinburgh is the hub of an efficient road network. An extensive motorway system makes for ease of access to the rest of the UK and to Europe.

By air: Regular air services are provided to all major UK cities. Frequent flights to and from London (Heathrow) have a flight time of 55 minutes.

LOCAL AREA MAP

Heriot-Watt campus is to the west of Edinburgh, just 7 miles from the city centre. It is easy to get into the city:

GETTING AROUND THE CITY

By Bus: There are regular bus services into the heart of the city from the campus – and there is a night bus service for returning home safely in the evening. The journey to Heriot-Watt University takes approximately 30 to 45 minutes. The Hermiston Park and Ride service, next to the International Study Centre, is served at peak times by a bus every 5 minutes to Edinburgh City centre.

By Taxi: The journey takes about 20 minutes. The main train station in Edinburgh, Waverly, has a large taxi rank, and it should cost approximately £18 to the University.

GETTING AROUND THE CAMPUS

This map shows the layout of the University campus including accommodation, the library and Student Union. The International Study Centre is based on the Research Park, a 5-10 minute walk from the centre of campus. The ISC is next to a bus stop where you can catch a bus around campus or into Edinburgh City centre.
