

Thank you for deciding to take your course at Lancaster University and for selecting residential accommodation. The university offers 10 different types of accommodation, all of which are university managed and on campus. Below is an outline of each type of accommodation available.

Bowland College Standard - £70.00 per week.

Bowland College En-suite - £92.40 per week.

Located at the heart of campus, Bowland is one of the smaller colleges at Lancaster. It has a friendly atmosphere and a strong sense of pride, purpose and fun. Bowland has a networked computer-study room, and a snooker room. The standard rooms all have their own washbasin, and bathrooms are shared between 4-6 students.

Cartmel College En-suite - £95.90 per week.

Cartmel is located to the south end of the campus. This college is very popular and has a great social spirit and easy going atmosphere. It has very impressive accommodation and social facilities, including the largest dining facility on campus, an outside covered area, and real-effect log burners so that you can study in warmth and comfort.

County College En-suite - £95.90 per week.

Located at the north end of the campus, County College is centred around a peaceful quadrangle. The internal layout and design of the college enables students to get to know each other quickly, and there is a strong sense of college loyalty. County also boasts a newly refurbished bar, games room, coffee shop and lounges, making it a very popular meeting place for students across the university.

Furness College En-suite - £95.90 per week.

Furness is fairly central to both the academic and social facilities provided. Furness is a friendly college with an active social, sporting and cultural life and a strong sense of community. The bar has been listed in the 'UK Good Real Ale Guide' and holds a popular annual real ale festival. The college has recently undergone a major refurbishment, including new accommodation facilities.

Fylde College En-suite - £92.40 per week.

Fylde College is located near to the sports centre, and is renowned for its sporting prowess. Its facilities include a non-alcoholic social space and a coffee bar which is frequented by many students. The college has recently completed a major refurbishment of its residential features.

Grizedale College En-suite - £95.90 per week.

Grizedale is located at the southern end of campus, and is known for its extremely sociable atmosphere. Grizedale students strive to maintain a friendly, inclusive environment conducive to the holistic well being of all within it. The college has a large computer room and many quiet study rooms.

Lonsdale College En-suite - £95.90 per week.

Lonsdale College occupies a modern, purpose-built building at the south end of campus. It has fantastic accommodation, social and study facilities. There is wireless connection for laptops in the bar and a non-alcoholic social space. It is set to become one of the largest and most vibrant colleges on campus and has a very trendy bar.

Pendle College Standard - £72.80 per week.

Pendle College En-suite - £92.40 per week.

Pendle College is one of the largest colleges on campus with a well developed sense of community. Pendle offers students the chance to be part of a strong and friendly college community and looks for students who will contribute to the colleges continued success. It is a popular meeting place, boasting a large bar. Pendle is proud of its strong academic and sporting achievements and also enjoys a friendly tradition of socialising and fun. The standard rooms all have their own washbasins, and shower rooms are shared between 4 students.
