

LANCASTER INTERNATIONAL STUDY CENTRE

MAPS & DIRECTIONS

Lancaster University lies 5.5km south of the city of Lancaster. The campus is easily accessible by road and rail and is within 70 miles of Manchester's International Airport.

COMING TO LANCASTER BY AIR

It is strongly recommended that you arrange to fly to Manchester International Airport (MAN), as this is the most convenient for onward travel to Lancaster. From Manchester airport you can reach Lancaster:

By taxi: A transfer can be arranged during the application process.

By rail: there is a frequent train service from Manchester Airport to Lancaster. This service usually departs hourly, although less frequently on Sundays. You may need to change trains in central Manchester or at Preston. The journey time is 60-90 minutes.

By coach: a coach service operates from Terminal 1 at Manchester Airport to Lancaster, stopping at the university. The journey takes 2 hours.

Travelling to Lancaster from other UK Airports: if you fly into either London Heathrow or London Gatwick airports, you will need to get to Euston Station in central London, from where a direct 3 hour train service to Lancaster departs.

GETTING AROUND THE UK

Lancaster is on England's main West Coast train line with direct connections to Euston station in London (approximately 3 hours).

By train you can easily reach the dynamic Northwest cities of Manchester (65 minutes), Liverpool (90 minutes) and Leeds (2 hours). There are also direct rail links between Lancaster and Birmingham, Oxford and major cities in Scotland.
