

LEICESTER INTERNATIONAL STUDY CENTRE

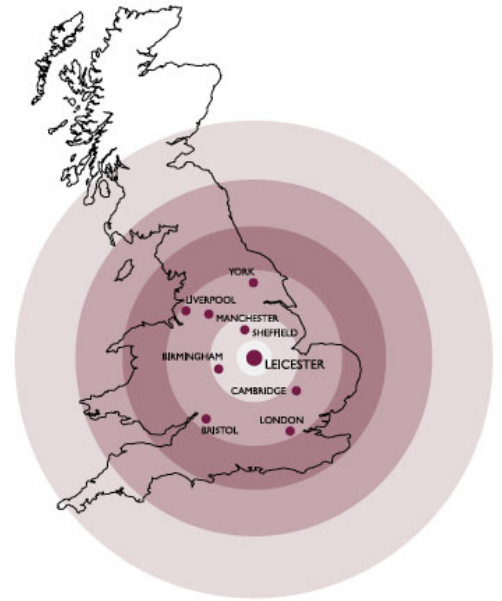

MAPS & DIRECTIONS

GETTING TO LEICESTER

You can fly direct to either London Gatwick (LGW) or Heathrow (LHR) from a wide range of international destinations. During the application process, you can arrange a taxi transfer from the main London either airport which will take you straight to your accommodation when you arrive in the UK.

Alternatively, you can reach Leicester by a regular direct coach service from both London Heathrow and London Gatwick airports.

Public transport is also available from the two regional airports close to Leicester, Nottingham East Midlands Airport (EMA) and Birmingham International Airport (BHX). From Birmingham International airport you will need to change trains at Birmingham New Street station.

GETTING AROUND THE UK

Leicester is in the heart of England with excellent communications by road, air and rail.

By rail

Leicester lies on a number of main train lines. Leicester is easily accessible from central London in just 75 minutes by train. Birmingham (New Street station) is approximately 60 minutes by train.

Leicester Station is on the same side of the City Centre as the University and can be reached in just 15 minutes on foot.

By coach

Though not always as fast as trains, coaches provide direct and cheap links between Leicester (St Margarets Bus Station) and many other UK cities.

By car

The city is only 30 minutes from East Midlands airport and 45 minutes from Birmingham airport by car.

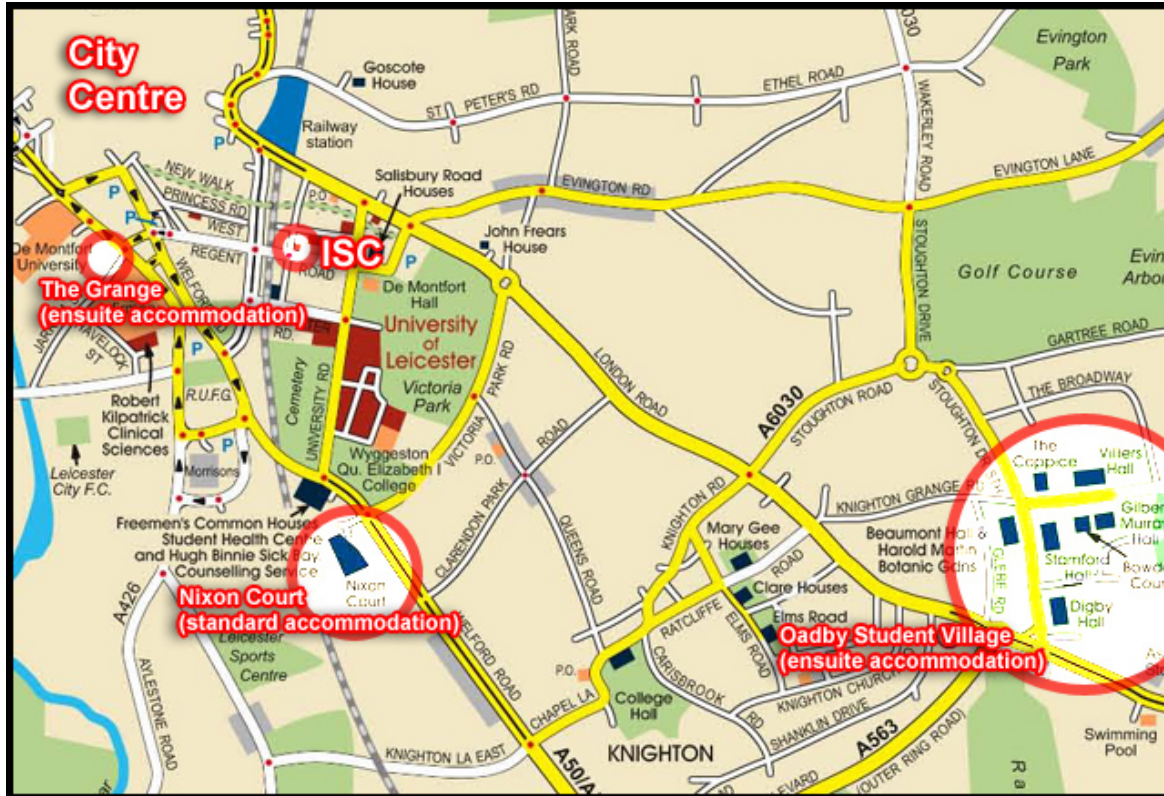

LEICESTER CITY CENTRE

As a student at the International Study Centre, you will be based at 94 Regent Road, close to the main University of Leicester campus. This map shows the location of the ISC relative to accommodation, the main University campus and the city centre.

GETTING TO THE CAMPUS FROM THE TOWN CENTRE

By bus

The number 80 bus service which runs from outside of the station to the campus. The fare from the bus station is about £1.20. Buses run approximately every 20 minutes during term time and every hour out of term. The buses go on from the campus to the University's Halls of Residence at Oadby.

On foot

Market Street, right in the City Centre, may be reached in 20-25 minutes on foot from the University. The walk to the city centre from campus is along New Walk, a pleasant Georgian pedestrian way, passing the Museum and Art Gallery. It takes approximately 40 minutes to walk to the bus station from the University. The train station is a shorter 15 minute walk.
